>> 1. An update from your Communications Officer

As it's a month and a half into the new year, I figure all you pharmacy students deserve an update on what's up with the communications portfolio. If you missed the previous announcements: the website is up - <http://ubcphus.org>. It features the very important interclub calendar, club contact information and a new section - job postings. Please check it out if you haven't already!

Announcements with definite dates also have a nifty new date next to them in the index, checking these announcements in certain email clients will allow you to add these dates to your calendar by clicking the dates. Try it out! (Please note this only fills in future dates for gmail)

I'm always looking to improve your ability to access information pertaining to PhUS and pharmacy events, so please let me know if you have any feedback! Email is a great way to reach me.

If you have any questions, feel free to contact any Kappa Psi member or email volunteercoordinator.deltamu@gmail.com!
